

Rainbow Bridge Bucket List

Making your last days count

Favorite Activities

- Playing Ball- Even if they cant chase, just roll!
- Hiking/Walks - Can't walk? Pull them on their favorite trail in a wagon!
- Soft blankets- Snuggle up and watch a movie on the bed/couch
- Car rides- visit favorite people/places
- Presents- let them rip open boxes of toys and food

Favorite Treats

- Hit some drive throughs - burgers, nuggets, fries
- Dog Bakery- pick out all kinds of fancy treats
- Chocolate, ice cream, cookies, all the sweets!
- Pup cups! Or make your own, whip cream + your pups favorite treat on top

Memories

- Photo Shoots! Whether you hire a professional or do it yourself
- Visits with your pets favorite people and take pictures
- Pawprints - ink, clay, paint, etc.
- Pet "painting" - put some paint on a canvas and place into a plastic bag. Smear some peanut butter on the bag and watch your pets make art!
- Get some video and put together a little memorial to a song that reminds you of your pet

Be Prepared

- Schedule the euthanasia- think about whether at home or with your family vet, etc.
- Think about your wishes for their body. Do you want cremation? Have a special place to bury them?
- Think of any special requests for euthanasia day. A song you might want to play, a blanket you might want them to lay on enjoy the love!

Its hard during this difficult time to not be sad. Try your best to make this time a celebration of life. Tell stories, look at pictures, share memories.
